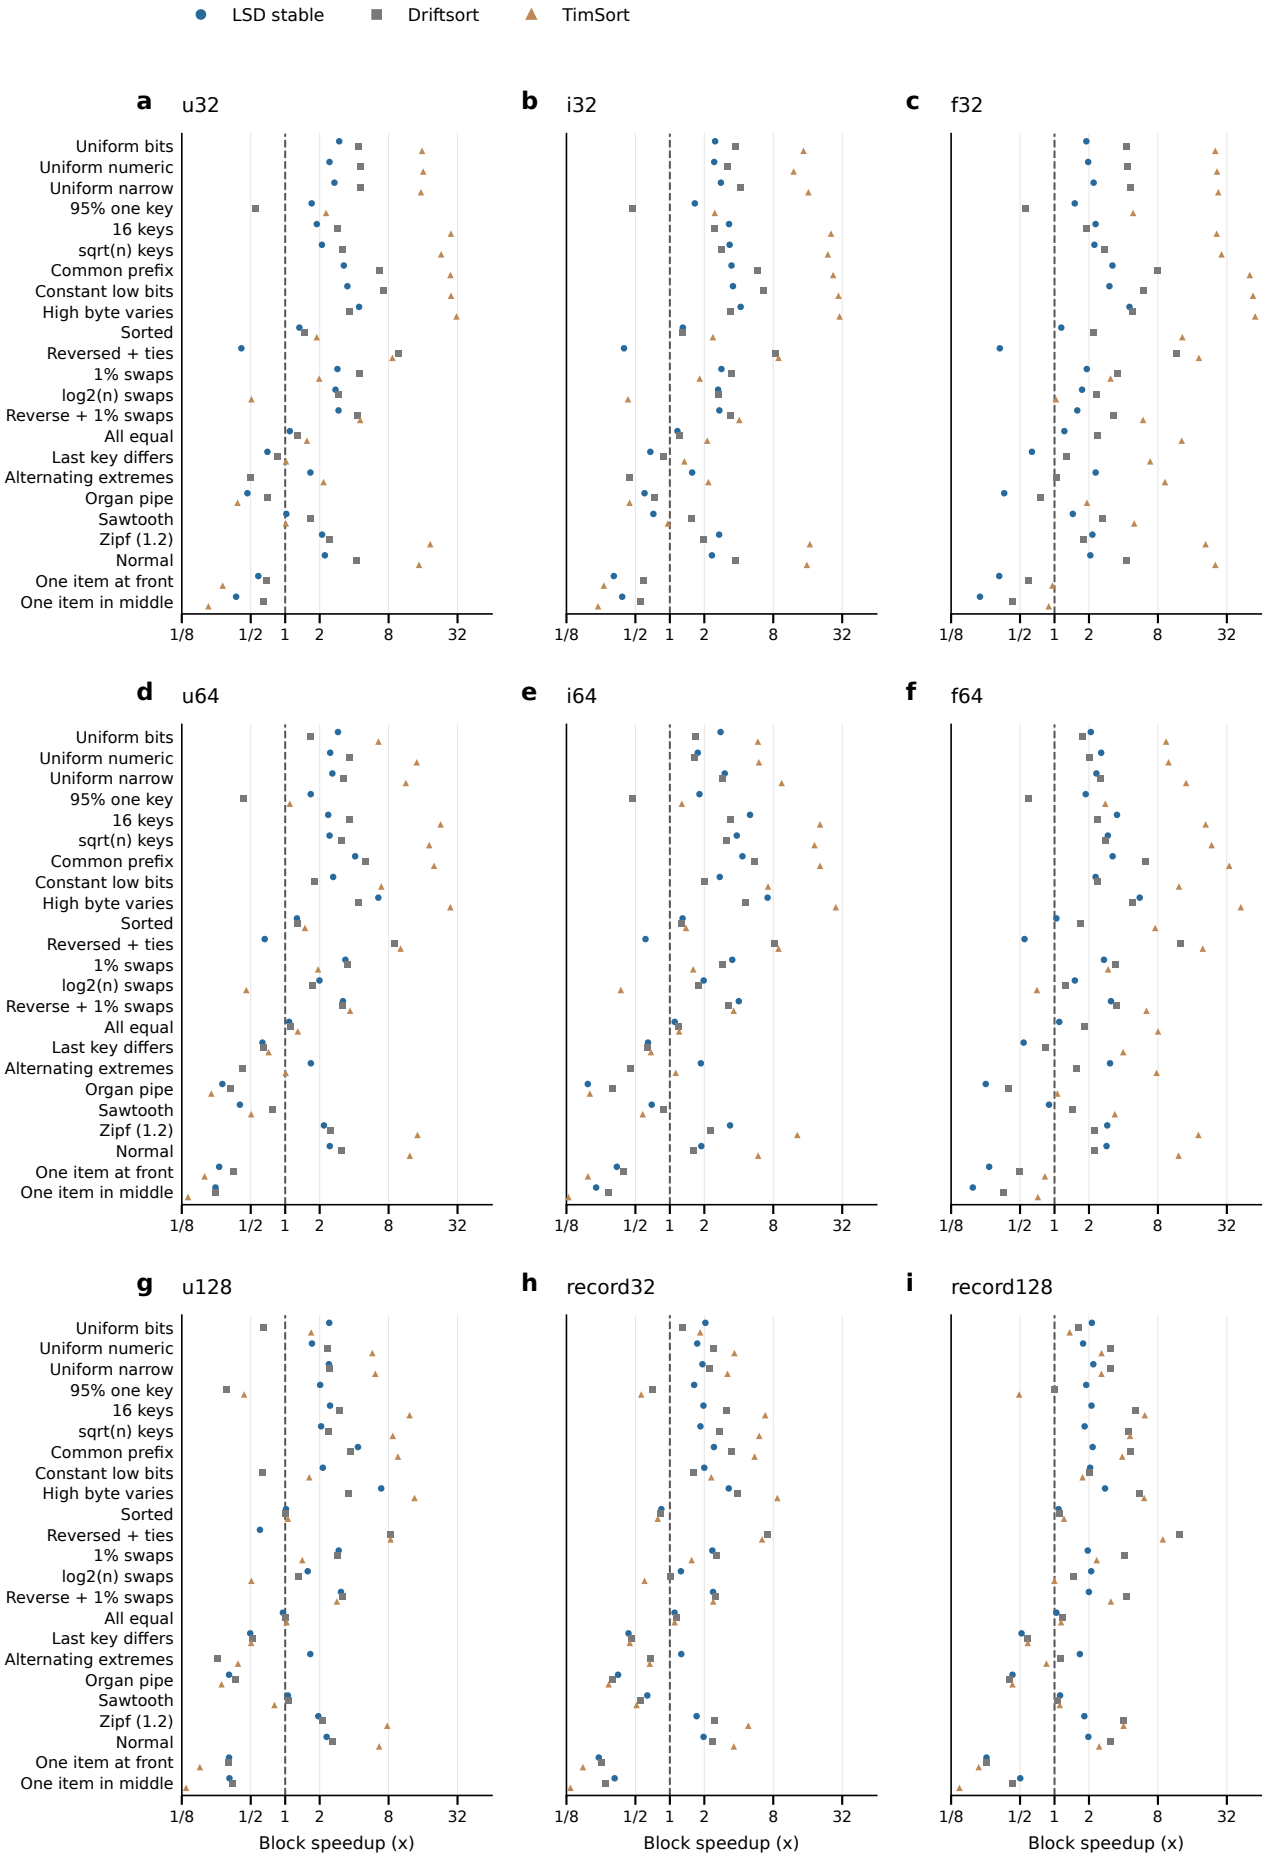
Block LSD speed by type and input structure

1M elements; c = 4, minimum 1 KiB/block; each point is one type and distribution



Speedup = reciprocal of the median of six paired candidate/comparator time ratios. Right of 1 is faster.

Each facet fixes one type; no range across types is drawn. Two reversed-record LSD oracle failures are omitted.

Points summarize timings; no confidence interval or noise-based significance claim is encoded.